The Horsemarket. This is a typical scene in the older portion of the ancient Hanseatic town of Hamburg, one of the most important cities in the world. In the picture is the interesting church of St. James which was erected in 1580/92 on the site of an earlier foundtaion mentioned in records of the 13th century. It was one of the few buildings of any importance which escaped the destructive fire in this locality in 1842.
